

JACQUES DERRIDA PRIZE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES 2019

Mgr. Karel Janeček / Embassy of France in the Czech Republic

Article 1 Scope of the competition

Mgr. Karel Janeček and the French Embassy in the Czech Republic organize a competition for the “Jacques Derrida Prize” in 2019.

The goal of this competition is to award the best PhD research work in all fields of social sciences and humanities. Every institution of research and higher education in Humanities and Social Sciences in the Czech Republic may propose high level candidates.

Article 2 Institutions involved and coordinators

All institutions of research and higher education (humanities and social sciences university faculties and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences) may enlist their students in the competition for the “Jacques Derrida Prize”.

They have to designate a coordinator and provide his or her name to the scientific department of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic at the latest by March 8, 2019.

Article 3 Criteria for selecting participants

All students of Czech universities, institutions of higher education and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences may take part in the competition provided they fulfill the following conditions:

- Their PhD research is encompassed within the field defined in Article 1
- They are of Czech or Slovak nationality and are younger than 33 years old on the date of the Awarding ceremony (see Article 8).
- They are currently enrolled in a doctorate cycle at a Czech institution of research and higher education or they have defended their PhD dissertation in 2018 or 2019.
- Their PhD studies do not collude with any work for Mgr. Karel Janeček.
- They are the author of at least one scientific article published or accepted for publication (to be proven by a letter from the editor) in a peer-reviewed international periodical.

Article 4 Role of the coordinator

The coordinator of the Jacques Derrida Prize 2019 project has the task of organizing the selection of the best participants from the ranks of the students enrolled at the given institution of research or higher education. These candidates will then be entered by the relevant institution in the competition.

The coordinator shall verify that individual participants fulfill the conditions for participating in the competition (viz. Article 3). Subsequently, he/she shall give to the French Embassy in the Czech Republic the names and contact information – personal and work – of all candidates taking part in the competition at the latest by March 29, 2019

Each coordinator must choose only one candidate. The president of the selection committee and the attaché for scientific and university cooperation of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic may preselect candidates should there be too many applications.

Article 5 Applications to the competition

Each candidate must deliver by email the complete Application package described in Annex 1 to the French Embassy in the Czech Republic (scientific department) at the latest by April 26, 2019.

Article 6 Selection committee

The selection committee will meet on May 16, 2019 in Prague.

The committee should be presided over by Professor Jérôme Heurtaux, director of the French Research Center in Social Sciences (CEFRES). Further members of this professional selection committee shall be:

- The attaché for scientific and university cooperation of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic.
- One representative of each institution of research and higher education from which candidates have been selected.

Individual applicants shall be invited by the French Embassy. They will present orally – in French or in English – their PhD research to the committee. Presentations shall last 10 minutes, followed by a 10 minutes Q&A.

After the oral presentation, the selection committee shall proceed with the final deliberations. The evaluation of the commission shall be recorded in the protocol. The laureates of the Prize will be informed of the results of the competition within a week after selection committee's meeting.

Article 7 Financial Subsidies and stipends

- 1st Prize: 37³ CZK (i.e. 50.653 CZK) and a stipend for a one-month internship in France
- 2nd Prize: 12x21x121 CZK (i.e. 30.492 CZK) and a stipend for a two-month internship in France
- 3rd Prize: 12x21x73 CZK (i.e. 18.396 CZK).

The award prizes are provided directly to the winners by Mgr. Karel Janeček.

Stipends for internships in France are provided by the French Embassy in the Czech Republic. These internships must take place in a French research center, and that at the latest by 15th December 2019. The scientific research center shall be chosen entirely by the laureates.

A CEFRES Platform Special Prize for best article of the year will also be supported by Mgr. Karel Janeček. The laureate will receive 21³ CZK (i.e. 9.261 CZK). Details for this special prize are presented in Annex 2.

Article 8 Awarding ceremony

The official awarding of the Prize will take place Or June 26th or June 27th 2019 in the presence of His Excellency, the Ambassador of France to the Czech Republic. The awards will be given to the laureates by Professor Jean-Marie Lehn, the Nobel Laureate in Chemistry.

The formal ceremony shall be attended not only by all awarded students, but also by their PhD supervisors and the representatives of the universities, institutions of higher education and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences. For the 25th anniversary of the Scientific awards, past awardees will also be invited to attend the ceremony.

Students might be invited to cooperate with the media (e.g. interviews) and understand that media materials from ceremonial may be used for marketing purposes.

Article 9 Time Schedule

March 8, 2019	Designation of project coordinators at institutions of higher education.
March 29, 2019	The coordinators inform the French Embassy of the names and contact information of applicants entered for their institution of research and/or higher education.
April 26, 2019	Deadline for sending the complete documentation of applications at the following address: sciences.prague@gmail.com .
May 16, 2019	Oral presentations by candidates before the selection committee.
June 26 or June 27, 2019	Awarding ceremony.
At the latest by December 15th 2020	Internship of awarded students in France.

Annex 1: Application Package

Name and Surname:
Date and place of birth:

Personal email:
Personal phone number:
Personal address:

Professional email:
Professional phone number:
Professional address:

Subject of Thesis:
Date of (past or forthcoming) defence:
Year and Faculty of registration:
PhD supervisor(s):
Discipline(s):

The application should also include:

- Academic curriculum vitae, including a list of publications. For publications in a peer-reviewed academic journal recognized by such databases as Web of Science or Scopus, please indicate their ranking.

and, specifically for the Jacques Derrida prize for best PhD research:

- A max. 5 page-long, illustrations included, presentation of the applicant's research activities and applicability prospects in English or French
- A max. half-page long summary of the above mentioned presentation with basic information from the aforementioned presentation in Czech and in English or French
- A letter of recommendation written by the applicant's scientific supervisor, presenting both the student and his research work

All documents should be sent altogether in the same email and in the same zip file to sciences.prague@gmail.com. The title of the email and file should be as follow: “Application to Jacques Derrida Prize – Name Surname – University – Faculty or Institute”.

or, specifically for the CEFRES platform prize for best article:

- An off-print of the submitted article for the Prize. NB: only one article will be considered; applications including two articles will be excluded
- The complete bibliographical references and a short summary of the submitted article in English or French
- A letter explaining the originality and prospects of the research involved in the article

Applications may be sent directly by young researchers to the following address:
platformaward@cefres.cz

Annex 2: CEFRES Platform Special Prize for best article of the year

Born from the desire to support young researchers from the Czech Republic who endeavor to embed their research within the European and international networks, this initiative from the CEFRES Platform aims to award an article in social sciences and humanities published in a high-level peer-reviewed academic journal.

Since 2014, CEFRES Platform gathers the French Research Center in Social Sciences in Prague, the Czech Academy of Sciences and Charles University in Prague.

Young researchers from all disciplines in social sciences and humanities from the Czech Republic may apply to the CEFRES Platform special award, whatever the topic of their research may be. Applications may be sent directly by young researchers themselves to the following address:

platformaward@cefres.cz

Eligibility Criteria

- to be a PhD student or to have defended one's PhD thesis at the earliest in 2011 in a university of the Czech Republic
- to submit to the award competition an article in English or in French published in a peer-reviewed academic journal recognized by such databases as Web of Science, Scopus, or by the European Reference Index for the Humanities and Social Sciences (ERIH PLUS)
- to have published the afore mentioned article between 2016 et 2019 (articles accepted for publication shall be excluded, since the award is to be renewed yearly)
- to submit one article only: applications including two or more articles will be excluded from the competition

An interdisciplinary jury presided over by the director of CEFRES and representatives from the CEFRES Platform will select the laureate.